13. Itemize in complete detail any and all moneys expended or expenses incurred for hospitals, doctors, nurses, diagnostic tests or health care providers, x-rays, medicines, care and appliances and state the name and address of each payee and the amount paid and owed each payee.

14. Itemize any and all other losses or expenses incurred not otherwise set forth.

15. Identify all documents that may relate to this action, and attach copies of each such document.

16. State the names and addresses of all eyewitnesses to the accident or occurrence, their relationship to you and their interest in this lawsuit.

17. State the names and addresses of all persons who have knowledge of any facts relating to the case.

18. If any photographs, videotapes, audio tapes or other forms of electronic recording, sketches, reproductions, charts or maps were made with respect to anything that is relevant to the subject matter of the complaint, describe: (a) the number of each; (b) what each shows or contains; (c) the date taken or made; (d) the names and addresses of the persons who made them; (e) in whose possession they are at present; and (f) if in your possession, attach a copy, or if not subject to convenient copying, state the location where inspection and copying may take place.

19. If you claim that the defendant made any admissions as to the subject matter of this lawsuit, state: (a) the date made; (b) the name of the person by whom made; (c) the name and address of the person to whom made; (d) where made; (e) the name and address of each person present at the time the admission was made; (f) the contents of the admission; and (g) if in writing, attach a copy.

20. If you or your representative and the defendant have had any oral communication concerning the subject matter of this lawsuit, state: (a) the date of the communication; (b) the name and address of each participant; (c) the name and address of each person present at the time of such communication; (d) where such communication took place; and (e) a summary of what was said by each party participating in the communication.

21. If you have obtained a statement from any person not a party to this action, state: (a) the name and present address of the person who gave the statement; (b) whether the statement was oral or in writing and if in writing, attach a copy; (c) the date the statement was obtained; (d) if such statement was oral, whether a recording was made, and if so, the nature of the recording and the name and present address of the person who has custody of it; (e) if the statement was written, whether it was signed by the person making it; (f) the name and address of the person who obtained the statement; and (g) if the statement was oral, a detailed summary of its contents.

22. If you claim that the violation of any statute, rule, regulation or ordinance is a factor in this litigation, state the exact title and section.

23. State the names and addresses of any and all proposed expert witnesses. Set forth in detail the qualifications of each expert named and attach a copy of each expert's current resume. Also attach true copies of all written reports provided to you by any such proposed expert witnesses.

With respect to all expert witnesses, including treating physicians, who are expected to testify at trial and with respect to any person who has conducted an examination pursuant to Rule 4:19, who may testify, state each such witness's name, address and area of expertise and attach a true copy of all written reports provided to you.

State the subject matter on which your experts are expected to testify.

State the substance of the facts and opinions to which your experts are expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

24. State whether you have ever been convicted of a crime. YES () or NO ().

If the answer is "yes", state: (a) date; (b) place; and (c) nature.

TO BE ANSWERED ONLY IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT CASES

25. State on what street, highway, road or other place (designate which) and in what general direction (north, south, east or west) your vehicle was proceeding immediately prior to the collision. (You may include a sketch for greater clarity.)

26. With respect to fixed objects at the location of the collision, state as nearly as possible the point of impact. If you included a sketch, place an X thereon to denote the point of impact.

(Note: The term "point of impact" as used in this and other questions has reference to the exact point on the street, highway, road or other place where the vehicles collided or where any pedestrian was struck.)

27. State whether there were any traffic control devices, signs or police officers at or near the place of the collision. If there were, describe them (i.e., traffic lights, stop sign, police officers, etc.)

and state the exact location of each.

28. If you contend that there was a malfunction of a motor vehicle or equipment, state: (a) make, model and year of the motor vehicle and whether or not that vehicle was equipped with power brakes and steering; (b) the nature of the malfunction; (c) the date the motor vehicle was purchased and the name and address of the person from whom the motor vehicle was purchased; (d) the date that that portion of the motor vehicle in which the malfunction occurred was last inspected and the name and address of the person inspecting same; (e) the last date prior to the accident that that portion of the motor vehicle was repaired or replaced, the nature and extent of the repairs, the name and address of the person repairing or replacing same; (f) if the motor vehicle was repaired after the accident, state the name and address of the person repairing same and the nature of the repairs; and (g) attach a copy of any repair bills.

29. If the collision occurred at an uncontrolled intersection, state: (a) which vehicle entered the intersection first; (b) whether your vehicle came to a full stop before entering the intersection; and (c) if your vehicle did not come to a full stop before entering the intersection, state the speed of your vehicle when it entered the intersection.

30. For each other vehicle or pedestrian collided with, state, at the time you first observed the other vehicle or pedestrian, (a) your speed and (b) the speed of the other vehicle or the movement, if any, of the pedestrian, and the distance in feet between (c) the front of your vehicle and the point of impact; (d) the front of the other vehicle or pedestrian and the point of impact, and (e) the front of your vehicle and the other vehicle or pedestrian.

31. State where each vehicle came to rest after the impact. Include the distance in terms of feet from the point of impact to the point where each vehicle came to rest.

32. For each other vehicle or pedestrian involved, state (a) which part of your vehicle; and (b) which part of the other vehicle or pedestrian came into contact.

33. State the following facts with respect to the collision: (a) time; (b) condition of weather; (c) condition of visibility; and (d) condition of roadway.

34. For each other vehicle or pedestrian involved, state whether you observed the vehicle or pedestrian prior to the accident? YES () or NO (). If the answer is “yes,” set forth the time that elapsed from the time you first saw the vehicle or pedestrian until the impact occurred.

35. At the time of the impact, state the speeds of all vehicles involved in the collision.

36. Were you charged with a motor vehicle violation as a result of the collision? YES () or NO (). If the answer is “yes”, state: (a) charge; (b) plea; and (c) disposition.

1. Describe in detail and with specificity the product involved in the incident that is the subject of this lawsuit, including the manufacturer's name, brand name, model number, serial number or other identifying decal or feature on the product.

If the product involved is a motor vehicle or any other product with component parts or systems, describe any part(s) or system(s) claimed to be defective or negligently designed, manufactured or distributed, or otherwise complained of.

2. Do you claim (a) that the product was defectively designed; (b) that the product was defectively manufactured; and/or (c) that the labelings or warnings on, attached to or accompanying the product were inadequate, misleading or insufficient? If so, set forth all facts (not legal conclusions) in support of your contention(s).

3. Do you claim that the defendant was negligent? If so, set forth all facts (not legal conclusions) in support of your contention. Do you claim that the defendant breached a warranty? If so, set forth all facts (not legal conclusions) in support of your contention. Set forth why any claims of negligence or breach of warranty are not subsumed in the product liability claim.

4. Identify all correspondence between plaintiff and the defendant or its representatives, and attach copies.

5. How did plaintiff come into possession of or contact with the product involved in the accident incident?

6. How long had the product involved in this incident been in the possession of or used by the plaintiff before the incident?

7. During the time given in response to the immediately preceding interrogatory, where was the product kept?

8. Where was the product immediately after the incident?

9. With respect to the product involved in the incident, set forth: (a) the name and address of the person presently having custody of the product; (b) the present location of the product; and (c) the last date that the product was in your possession.

10. State whether the product is currently in the same condition as immediately after the incident. If not, fully describe the changes that have occurred, who made them, the reason for such changes and the date they were made.

11. Did the product have any words or symbols on it or its packaging, or any written or pictured warnings attached to it? If so, set forth each writing and describe each symbol or picture.

12. Was an owner's manual or other literature provided with the product? If so, attach such manual or literature or, if a copy is not available, describe the manual or other literature and summarize its contents.

13. Have you ever pursued a workers' compensation claim for injuries sustained as a result of the incident that is the subject of this lawsuit? If so, set forth: (a) the title and venue of every workers' compensation proceeding to which you have been a party; (b) the date upon which each such proceeding was instituted; (c) the date on which each such proceeding was tried and settled; (d) the name and address of each doctor who examined you in connection with each such proceeding; (e) the amount of the award you received from each such proceeding; and (f) the name and address of every employer or insurance company that has actually paid you workers' compensation benefits.

14. Do you contend that the design, labeling and warnings, manufacture or distribution of the product was governed by any governmental and/or industry codes, standards, regulations or advisories? If so: (a) state the name and address of the governmental agency or department, or the industry office; and (b) specifically identify the codes, standards, regulations or advisories by title and numerical, alphabetical or other coded designation.

15. Did you sustain any property damage or other economic loss as a result of the incident that is the subject of this lawsuit? If so, specify all such damages.

16. Do you contend that the product contained a design defect? If so, set forth your contention as to how the product should have been designed in a safer, more appropriate manner.

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the copies of the reports annexed hereto provided by either treating physicians or proposed expert witnesses are exact copies of the entire report or reports provided by them; that the existence of other reports of said doctors or experts are unknown to me, and if such become later known or available, I shall serve them promptly on the propounding party.

Form C(4). Uniform Interrogatories to be Answered by Defendant in Product Liability Cases (Other Than Pharmaceutical and Toxic Tort Cases) Only: Superior Court

All questions must be answered unless the court otherwise orders or unless a claim of privilege or protective order is made in accordance with R. 4:17-1(b)(3).

(Caption)

In propounding the interrogatories, plaintiff should provide this information:

- (a) a description of the product, as specific as possible.
- (b) the date and place of purchase, if known.
- (c) the make, model and any serial number or other identifying decal or feature on the product.
- (d) any words printed on the product.
- (e) if the product involved is a motor vehicle or has component parts, a description of any part(s) or system(s) claimed to be defective or negligently designed, manufactured or distributed, or otherwise complained of.
- (f) a general description of the manner in which plaintiff claims to have been injured.

Answers to these interrogatories should be furnished within the context of the information provided by plaintiff in (a) through (f), above.

1. Did you manufacture the product? If so, state: (a) the date and place of manufacture; (b) the date you sold or otherwise distributed the product; and (c) the name and address of the person or entity that purchased the product from you. If you did not manufacture the product, state the name and address of the person or firm who did so. State the name and address of the person or entity from which you purchased the product.

2. Did you sell or otherwise distribute the product? If so, state: (a) the date on which you sold or otherwise distributed the product; (b) the names and addresses of all persons and entities that sold or otherwise distributed the product; and (c) the dates of sale and distribution for each such person or entity.

3. State the name and address of any person, firm or entity that did the following with respect to the product (if the product is a motor vehicle or has component parts, this question pertains to the subpart(s) or system(s) complained of): (a) designed it; (b) manufactured it; (c) assembled it; (d) packaged it; (e) distributed it, through sale or otherwise; (f) advertised it; installed it; and (h) serviced or otherwise maintained it.

4. Were there any writings or warnings on the product itself, on its packaging, or on anything attached or appended to the product, when it left your control? If so, state specifically and fully the exact words used and their location. If a warning was given in other than words, attach copies of any and all symbols or depictions used.

5. State whether you provided to a distributor, possible user or any person or firm that you expected to come in contact with the product, any form of written material, such as an owner's manual, repair manual, parts manual or any other writing pertaining to the product. If so, attach a copy of any such written material. If you do not have a copy, state specifically what was written or depicted.

6. Have you or any other person or entity repaired, altered, or otherwise changed the design or specifications of the product (in the case of a motor vehicle or a product with component parts, this question refers to the subpart(s) or system(s) complained of) from the date of manufacturing to the date of the incident? If so, state: (a) the name and address of the person or entity who made the repair, alteration or change; (b) the date of each such change; (c) the specific details of the change; (d) the name and address of the officer, managing agent or other person(s) in your organization most involved with such change; and (e) the names and addresses of all your employees or agents who were involved in such change. If the change is displayed on plans, specifications, blueprints or other drawings, or described in any document, attach a legible copy of such plans, specifications, blueprints, drawings or documents.

7. If, from the date the product was manufactured until the date of the incident, any writings or warnings pertaining to the product were added, altered, or otherwise changed, state: (a) the date of each such change; (b) the specific words or symbols used in each such change; (c) the name and address of the officer, managing agent or other person(s) in your organization most involved with such change; and (d) the names and addresses of all of your employees who were involved in such change.

8. Identify all correspondence between plaintiff and the defendant or its representatives, and attach copies.

9. State whether you intend to assert any defenses at the time of trial.

(a) If so, and the defenses are based upon the common-law, state the principle involved and fully provide the factual basis for any such defense.

(b) If so, and the defenses are based upon a statute, regulation or other written rule, identify each such statute, regulation or rule and fully provide the factual basis for any such defense.

(c) If so, and your defense is based upon an alteration, use, misuse of or other change in the product, indicate each such defense and fully provide the factual basis for any such defense.

10. State whether at any time prior to answering these interrogatories and subsequent to the date of manufacturing or distribution of the product itself or similar products by this defendant any person complained or alleged that he, she or anyone suffered bodily injuries or death as a result of using the product in the manner in which plaintiff claims to have used the product when the injury occurred. If so: (a) identify all such claimants and their attorneys; (b) describe as specifically as possible the product involved, including but not limited to the model and serial numbers; and (c) if a lawsuit was instituted against the defendant, state the names and addresses of the claimants, their attorney(s) and the court in which such claim was instituted.

11. If you allege that any other person or entity or product manufactured by any other person or entity is responsible for the incident, provide the name and address of that person or entity, identify the product, if any, and fully provide the factual basis for the allegation.

12. Are you a member of or affiliated with any trade organization or industry group that promulgates written standards, habits or customs pertaining to the product involved in the accident? If so, provide the address of each such organization or group, and attach a copy of the written standards promulgated.

13. Do you contend that the design, manufacture or distribution of the product was governed by any governmental and/or industry codes, standards, regulations or advisories? If so: (a) state the name and address of the governmental agency or department, or the industry office; and (b) specifically identify the codes, standards, regulations or advisories by title and numerical, alphabetical or other coded designation.

CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that the copies of the reports annexed hereto provided by either treating physicians or proposed expert witnesses are exact copies of the entire report or reports provided by them; that the existence of other reports of said doctors or experts are unknown to me, and if such become later known or available, I shall serve them promptly on the propounding party.
