RULE 600 - SPEEDY TRIAL WAIVER

Initial the applicable answers:

1.	Do you understand that Rule 600 of the Pennsylvania Rules of Criminal Procedure (Rule 600) requires that your tr no later than 180 and/or 365 days from the date on which the criminal complaint charging you with this/these o was filed with the Magisterial District Judge?
	Yes No
2. Do you understand that, with certain exceptions set forth later in this form, if your trial does not begin mandatory 180 and/or 365 days period, you may petition the Court to dismiss the charge(s) against you wit and obtain a Court Order ending this prosecution against you for all time?
	Yes No
3.	Do you understand that any periods of time at any stage of these proceedings in which you or your lawyer were unavailable, and the periods of any continuances in excess of 30 days requested by you or your lawyer at any stage of these proceedings are not counted as part of the time for beginning your trial – that these time periods are excluded from the calculation of the 180 and/or 365 days?
	Yes No
4.	Do you understand that Rule 600 allows the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at any time prior to the expiration of the period for commencement of trial to apply for and receive an extension of the period when, despite due diligence by the Commonwealth, your trial cannot begin within the 180 and/or 365 days or any previously extended time period?
	Yes No
5.	Do you understand that by (requesting) (agreeing to) (not opposing) this continuance you are giving up any right which you might otherwise have under Rule 600 to obtain a dismissal of the charges(s) against you for failure to comply with that Rule; that you will not be able to complain that you were denied speedy trial because of the time consumed by this continuance; and that your trial will be considered timely even if the 180 and/or 365 days or any extension thereof would otherwise have run out before the end of the last day of the nexterial session, so long as your trial begins either on or before the expiration of the actual or extended date set by Rule 600 whichever date is latest?
